

Flits - Broken Planet (maybe) broken planet is a game where you need to find your way down to earth by jumping ore using ropes there is breaking of a part of a planet and you are on that piece now you need to try to get of by jumping on smaller pieces ore using your rope the planets are just floating into the air (dont ask me how (looks also cool on dragonhunters)) sometimes you need to puzzel to get to the next part like moveing boxes to get up ore you need a big jump to get to the next part ore climbing on things like tompraidr you got also a gun you find because some wild annimals are getting crazy and are trying to atack you
